

About your electricity tariff

|  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| Supplier                                 | Avid Energy                   |
| Tariff Name                              | Smart PAYG Starter Plus       |
| Tariff Type                              | Variable tariff (Online only) |
| Payment Method                           | Prepayment Meter              |
| Unit Rate                                | 15.02 per kWh                 |
| Standing Charge                          | 44.12 per day                 |
| Tariff ends on                           | NA                            |
| Price guaranteed until                   | NA                            |
| Exit fees                                | None                          |
| Discounts and additional charges         | £50 Starter credit            |
| Additional products or services included | Energy saving App             |

All costs include VAT and are based on current prices for the tariff shown above. The prices quoted may be different to how these are displayed on your bill

Frequently asked questions

What is a kWh?

A kWh stands for kilowatt-hour, the unit used to measure energy use. 1kWh will power a 40 watt light bulb for 25 hours.

About your gas tariff

|  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| Supplier                                 | Avid Energy                   |
| Tariff Name                              | Smart PAYG Starter Plus       |
| Tariff Type                              | Variable tariff (Online only) |
| Payment Method                           | Prepayment Meter              |
| Unit Rate                                | 3.88 per kWh                  |
| Standing Charge                          | 42.25 per day                 |
| Tariff ends on                           | NA                            |
| Price guaranteed until                   | NA                            |
| Exit fees                                | None                          |
| Discounts and additional charges         | £50 Starter credit            |
| Additional products or services included | Energy saving App             |

All costs include VAT and are based on current prices for the tariff shown above. The prices quoted may be different to how these are displayed on your bill

Frequently asked questions

What is a kWh?

A kWh stands for kilowatt-hour, the unit used to measure energy use. 1kWh will power a 40 watt light bulb for 25 hours.